Chiropractic is the fastest growing and second-largest primary health care profession. They receive an extensive, demanding professional education, which includes numerous undergraduate prerequisites and four years of graduate-level instruction and internship at an accredited chiropractic institution.

These individuals continue to gain recognition for their work in treating problems of fatigue, posture, illnesses related to back & neck problems, even tennis elbow, and many medical matters not normally thought of as treatable by other than medical doctors.

These Chiropractors are excellent prospects for health & medical publications, continuing education, seminars, insurance, as well as gifts, book offers, and many others.
