6,694 w/Top Contact - $25/M Additional

This file contains managers and supervisors of public and private landfills. By using local, state and federal regulations regulating waste disposal, these professionals coordinate the activities of landfill workers.

These managers oversee many of the landfill operations such as the spreading and compacting of solid waste and the use of insecticides to control insects and pests.

These supervisors also assist in the selection of new landfill locations according to changes in population.

Phone numbers are available - $20/M additional.
